

Thursday 2 July 2026
at 1 Wimpole Street, London

The Morning

9.30	Welcome Breakfast
10.00	Conference Welcome With Tom West , CEO, PLS
10.15	Introduction to PLS With Amy Byrne , Publisher Relations Executive, PLS	Collective Licensing in Action With James Bennett , Head of Rightsholder Relations, Copyright Licensing Agency
10.55	From Requests to Rights: What Permission Data Tells Us in 2025–26 With Helen Jennings , Product Manager, PLS and Natalia Kornioukhova , Product Manager, PLS	ALCS: Past, Present and Future With Richard Combes , Deputy CEO, ALCS
11.35	Emerging AI Licensing Models and Trends With Ritch Sibthorpe , CEO, Muwzo AI

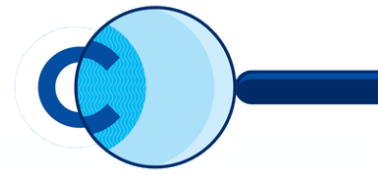

The Introduction to Rights Seminar 2026

This year the Introduction to Rights Seminar will run as an exclusive morning event supported by PLS.

Open to students and early-careers professionals in rights and publishing who are looking to expand their knowledge of rights selling, copyright fundamentals, and what rights you can sell.

Introduction to Rights 2026 tickets are sold separately, click here to book through our Eventbrite page:

The Afternoon

12.10	Lunch
13.05	CEO's Panel: Licensing Generative AI With speakers Barbara Hayes, Chief Executive, ALCS; Simon Hutson, Chief Executive, CLA; Tom West, Chief Executive, PLS; and chaired by Ritch Sibthorpe, CEO, Muwzo AI
13.50	AI in Action: A publishing Case Study Presented by the Independent Publishers Guild (IPG), With Rob Burleigh, Burleigh Dodds Science Publishing; and chaired by Bridget Shine, Chief Executive, IPG	Humans and Machines; the Everywhere Equation Highlights from the PPA report in partnership with Enders Analysis. Presented by the Professional Publishers Association, With Mel McVeigh, Strategic Consultant (Digital Product), PPA
14.40	The Legal Q&A: Expert insights on copyright and competition developments. Presented by the Publishers Association With Katherine Kirrage Osborne, Clarke, LLP; and Zoey Forbes from Harbottle & Lewis.	What's Next in AI Policy, Litigation, Legislation? Presented by the Association of Learned and Professional Society Publishers, With speakers Prof. Emily Hudson, Professor of Law, University of Oxford; Dr. Guido Westkamp, Professor of Intellectual Property and Comparative Law, QMUL; Joel Smith, Partner, IP Group, Simmons & Simmons LLP; and chaired by Leslie Lansman, Head of Permissions and Licensing, Springer Nature
15.20	Afternoon Break
15.40	Making Rights Visible: Changing Internal Perceptions of Licensing Chaired by Jessica Rutt, International Rights and Licensing Manager, RCNi; and Claire Harper, Associate Director, Global Rights and Licensing at SAGE Publishing; With panellists Clare Hodder, Founder, RightsZone; Amy Joyner, Rights and Licensing Director, Kogan Page; Gemma Davis, International Licensing Manager, Future
16.15	Keynote Address Baroness Thangam Debonnaire , Introduced by Monisha Shah, Chair, PLS
17.00	Post-Conference Drinks Reception

This year's exhibitors

